Fired on U. S. Steamship

And Turkey Has Apologized for the Insult

THE FUNERAL OF ACTOR TERRISS

Many Notables Send Floral Tributes. The French Cruiser Jaubert Starts for Chinese Waters.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The navy department today received news that the United States steamship Bancroft has been fired on at Smyrna. The cable announcing this was brief and very little importance is attached to the incident. The Turkish government made apology for the insult to the flag and two Turkish officers have been dismissed from service and sentenced to several weeks arrest.

FRENCH CRUISER FOR CHINA.

Paris, Dec. 21.—The French cruiser Jaubert has received orders to sail from Brest for Chinese waters to strengthen the French squadron stationed there.

FUNERAL OF ACTOR TERRISS.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Dec. 21.—William Terriss, the actor, was buried at Brompton today. Numerous floral decorations were received, some of them from Lord Rosebery, the Rothschilds and Mrs. De Navarro and many well known actors. There were over a hundred carriages in the procession and fifty thousand people gathered at the cemetery.

Christmas Carnival.

The word carnival suggests a good time, and that is what the Brockmann Orchestra is preparing to give to the public at their carnival on December 29th and 30th.

This organization is a fixture and should have the support of the music loving public. They are desirous of raising enough money to pay for the recently purchased instruments, and have hit upon the plan of giving this carnival as the best means of doing so, while, at the same time, it will be a season of relaxation for business men and women, who need to recuperate during the holidays so that they may begin the new year with fresh minds and bodies.

There will be no fixed program, but plenty of music by the orchestra, as well as other pleasant features of entertainment. In short it is to be a meeting place for all who wish to have a good, social time. No heavy music will be played, but light, melodious marches, waltzes, etc., such as one can listen to while he talks to his friends. Talking will not be prohibited, but may be indulged in to the satisfaction of everyone.

Refreshments also will be served. Don't forget the date and place—December 29th and 30th, at the Academy of Music.

The Word Contest.

In the word contest of Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud offering a suit of clothes for the largest number of words made from the letters of the firm name, the following are some of the figures:

C. P. Venable gets first prize, with 8590.

W. P. Turner gets second prize with 743.

Other names worthy of mention were:

John McCauley, 7005; Blake Phipps, 6139; Donnell May, 5732; Mrs. D. L. Hagan, 5409; Logan Porter, 5292.

There were four in the 400 list; ten in the 300; seven in the 200 and twenty-two in the 100 list.

The smallest number of words was seven.

The contest was conducted with the greatest fairness and the contestants are doubtless all satisfied.

Mr. Bryan in Mexico.

Mexico City, Dec. 20.—Presidente Hampson, of the Mexico, Cuernavaca & Pacific Railroad, with a small party accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Bryan to Cuernavaca, today. The party were greatly pleased with the magnificent view of the valley of Mexico from the summit of the mountain range. A reception was given at the apartments of the American Club tonight, at which Mr. and Mrs. Bryan met a large number of ladies and gentlemen. There is absolutely no truth in the statement that Mr. Bryan attended a Sunday's bull fight.

WEDDING BELLS.

Pretty and Impressive Marriage at Centenary.

Today just before noon Centenary church was the scene of a pretty and impressive marriage in which Miss Mary Gertrude, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Smith, and Mr. Lee Stafford Smith, a successful merchant of Guilford College promised that they would finish the journey of life together as man and wife.

The church was darkened by closing the blinds and the soft, mellow gas light made the scene more beautiful and lovely.

The pulpit was decorated with cedar and potted plants. Just in front of the chancel was a cross—arch of evergreens beneath which was suspended a snow white parasol. Perched just above this was a beautiful dove.

The organ responded in enchanting tones to the cultured touch of Mrs. E. E. Bain and the party filed in to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march:

Ushers—Charles Steed and A. L. Smith; C. E. Brown and John Smith. The attendants were: Thomas Gregory and Miss Fannie May Smith, T. A. Glascock and Miss Agnes Lewis, Dan Hooper and Miss Ella Smith, Arch Worth and Miss Jessie Henley, A. R. Winslow and Miss Annie Smith. Maid of honor, Miss Mamie Ferguson; Flower girls, Clara Neese and Della Smith.

The groom entered on the arm of Mr. W. T. Williams, and was followed by the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. D. B. Smith. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Gay, the pastor of Centenary church.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on the 12:10 train for a bridal trip to Washington and Baltimore followed by the good wishes and congratulations of a large number of friends.

LOST—A BRIDE."

She Will be Found at the Academy of Music Next Tuesday Night.

"It's peculiar what some people think they must do to show their ability and merit for an engagement," said George Middleton, the veteran stage manager the other day.

Mr. Middleton has the well earned reputation of having staged more real comedy successes than any other stage director in the profession. He comes to Greensboro Tuesday, December 28th, on the evening of which date he will appear as Mr. Pettiton in the farcical comedy success, "Lost—A Bride," which is to be presented at the Academy of Music here.

"Not long ago," Mr. Middleton continued, "a gentleman astonished the world and tested the fortitude of his friends by reciting from memory the whole of Dante's 'Divine Comedy.'

The feat was accomplished in 26 hours and was sufficiently novel and undesirable. But in eccentricity, a reciter, who recently performed before our manager, Mr. H. D. Grahame, goes further. This enthusiast called on him and insisted upon reciting Thomson's 'Seasons' entirely by facial expression.

The poem is not peculiarly rich in dramatic opportunities, but he forged remorselessly to the end, although long before he reached it, his listeners had to consult the text. A single facial expression can mean so many things."

To Santa Claus:

The following letter addressed to Santa Claus has been sent The Telegram for publication and we gladly give it space, knowing that Old Santa is a constant reader of this paper and that he will comply with our little friends' request.

Greensboro, Dec. 21, 1897.

Dear Santa Claus!—Please bring me a work box, a tooth brush, a mug, some candy, some raisins, nuts and oranges. You need not bring me any dolls for I have seven. You will find my stocking on the left of the mantle. Please don't forget me.

Your little seven-year-old friend, GLENANA VUNCANON.

The Schumann Orchestra.

Though the weather was much against a good house last night the Académie of Music was fairly well filled. The all-ladies orchestra gave a performance that was highly satisfactory. The solos were well received and the popular airs played by the orchestra, in response to encores, caught the audience.

The next attraction will be the H. D. Graham Company in the comedy, "Lost—A Bride."

PIERPONT MORGAN'S SCHEME

Will Sell Coal Directly to The Consumer.

PRINCESS HOHENLOHE IS DEAD.

Richard Mandelbaum Has Sued for Divorce and New York is Ago

Over the Scandal.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Dec. 21.—J. Pierpont Morgan announces that the Susquehanna and Western railway is going to sell coal direct to the consumers. Thousands of dealers will be thrown out of work but Morgan maintains that coal will be cheaper.

PRINCESS HOHENLOHE DEAD.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Berlin, Dec. 21—Princess Hohenlohe, wife of Imperial Chancellor Hohenlohe is dead. She has been suffering for sometime with inflammation of the lungs.

NEW YORK'S SCANDAL.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Dec. 21—Richard Mandelbaum who was shot and slightly wounded a few weeks past by J. Walde Kirk, the celebrated Chicago dude who came to New York to set the styles in dress, has sued for a divorce, naming Kirk as the co-respondent. The scandal occurred in a swell up town hotel, the Gerard, where Mrs. Jefferson Davis and other prominent people reside.

WORK OF THE STAMP DIVISION.

That for Present Quarter the Largest in Its History.

As an evidence that the era of prosperity has set in, it may be mentioned that the work of the stamp division, Post Office Department, has increased in such a degree that the employees of that division are working overtime daily to bring the quarter's work up to date.

The increase is very large; in fact, the work for the fourth quarter of 1897 is the largest in the history of the office. This is significant, as this division, handling as it does requisitions from all post offices for stamps, envelopes, &c., for sale to public, has its finger on the public pulse and immediately detects an increase in the volume of business throughout the country. The condition is encouraging, if it is hard on the clerks of the always overworked stamp division.—Washington Star.

Gifts for the Orphans.

At Westminster Presbyterian church on Thursday Dec. 23rd, promptly at 7 o'clock, p. m., the congregation is cordially invited to be present. Let each one bring an offering of some kind for the orphans at Barium Springs. There are children between four and fifteen years of age, both sexes, and ready made clothing or material to make them, preserved and canned fruits, crates of apples, books, toys, etc., will be acceptable gifts.

Give something, give as God has prospered you and give cheerfully for the sake of Him whose natal day we celebrate on the 25th of this month and for thus remembering these orphaned little ones. He will smile upon and bless you.

A Year of Crimes.

Col. Olds writes the Charlotte Observer:

The official statement is made that in South Carolina over 200 murders have been committed this year. In North Carolina the number does not exceed 30.

It would be a capital idea if sheriffs or clerks of court would make a report on the last day of each year to the Attorney General of all capital crimes committed in their respective counties during the twelve-month, with the number of executions, legal and by Judge Lynch. This would show North Carolina's status in regard to the greater crimes. A Chicago paper makes the astounding statement that during 1896 there were 10,000 murders in the United States.

Confessed to Murder.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Norristown, Pa. Dec. 21—Miss Elizabeth DeKalb who is charged with complicity in the murder of Mrs. Kaiser made a confession to her attorney which will be repeated on the witness stand today.

Snow White and The Dwarfs.

Miss Laura Doub's music class will give the operetta, "Snow White and The Dwarfs," Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, in Bogart's Hall, on December 22nd.

Snow White and The Dwarfs ask all, who are interested in music, to come to hear them. The plot, persons dramatis and price will appear later.

You can get the telegraphic news twelve hours earlier in THE TELEGRAM than in any paper that gets into Greensboro, and for four dollars a year less.

Once more the war between the Southern and Seaboard Air Line is declared to be over. It now only remains to inquire when it will begin again.

Now it appears that the British Lion sniffs the odor of the slaughter of China and is putting in his claim for a few square miles of territory to accommodate his morning drum beat.

The reported attempt to assassinate General Weyler shows that worthy has not, by any means, decided to forego the pleasure of seeing his name in print. The ruling passion is strong in death.

Mr. Marion Butler, on his return from Washington, was forced to pay excess baggage. He had an unusual large number of conspiracies against the "people" which he had plucked up while there.

The Rev. Geo. H. Hepworth, the New York Herald's peripatetic investigator of the Armenian massacres and indefatigable teller of a tale worn smooth with previous telling, reports to the tune of a column on his investigations. The Reverent Hepworth, with astounding acumen, has learned that the Armenians really had no chance of success. The indications are that by the time a new Sultan ascends the throne the reverent gentleman will startle us with the declaration that the war is over.

Governor Ellerbee, of our sister Carolina, will send a message to the next legislature of that state recommending that steps be taken to restore the dispensary to its former prestige. If the governor is really troubled about the matter the remedy is easy and simple. He should establish a tasting commission, import three Kentucky colonels to compose it and let no whiskey go into the dispensaries that did not first bring a responsive smack from the lips of the commission. The result would be a run on the dispensaries that a shaky bank could not equal and the credit side of the ledger would rise like the mercury on an August morning.

The report that we are to be treated to a fresh dose between fusion between popes and Republicans is perhaps well founded. The republican party, after twenty years of fasting, has an appetite that will not be denied; it will stop at nothing and stoop to anything that will secure spoils. The leaders of the populist party are political adventurers merely and will go where the most is offered. The two parties gravitate together naturally. Let them gravitate. Nothing that makes for decency and stability in state government can ever come to us through either. Let the lines be drawn that all honest men may know where they rightfully belong. The rank and file of the populist party will grow sick of being bartered and sold like so many cattle. The end of the populist party in this state approaches and the better element will return to a renewed and clarifies democracy. Therein, alone, lies the hope of redemption for North Carolina.

The Rev. James Farrar, who has relinquished a $6,000 salary to preach for nothing, will be no worse off than a goodly number of his brethren, save for the fond regrets that will hover around his coal bin and cupboard, some cool day.

Let 'em strike up "After the Ball," "A Hot Time in the Old Town" and let all the sleeping ears snore at once, out in Kansas. Mary Ellen Lease and Stockless Jerry Simpson are to oppose each other for the congressional nomination.

There will be a clash of whirl winds, a crashing and flashing of chain lightnings, Peffer will cove in his dugout and John J. Ingalls will make for the nearest prize fight, out in Kansas.

Though congress is adjourned Washington does not propose to be without amusement. A party of prominent society people, including a young lady, were arrested in Senator Cullom's stable, the attraction being a dog fight. A dog fight in a senator's stable may not be much worse than a cat-and-dog fight in the senate, but it is at least more novel. The young lady in question showed that try as she may and does, the up-to-date young woman cannot be quite masculine. She screamed and fainted when the cops pulled the outlay.

Convict in the Presbytery.

Chicago, Dec. 20.—The members of the Chicago Presbytery were surprised at their last meeting by an announcement made by the Rev. John L. Withrow, of the Third Presbyterian church, that an ex-convict probably had gained admission to the Presbytery in this city. Dr. Withrow said he would be the last person to attack the character of any worthy person, but the appearances were against the accused, and unless the matter was speedily cleared up there was nothing left for the Presbytery to do but eject the offender from its membership. The accused man is the Rev. F. M. Davis, who, it is charged, is really Ralph A. Davis, of Kingsville, O., who had served a term in the Ohio Penitentiary for embezzlement. Davis denied that he was an ex-convict, but has disappeared.

Rich, But Has No Money.

Detroit, Dec. 19.—Mrs. Elizabeth O'Donnell, 73 years old, living on Beach street, although the owner of a homestead, three rented cottages, and a valuable farm out Woodward avenue, has been reported to the Poor Commission as a proper subject for their care. She was found sick in bed, with little fire and no food. Her cottages are occupied, but the tenants have paid no rent since last spring. There is a tenant on her farm, but he pays no rent. She says an offer of $45,000 was made for it last summer. She has no money.

What It Means.
When we advertise that we will guarantee Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters, Buckiekin's Aralia Salve, or Dr. King's New Life Pill, we are not authorized by the proprietors to sell these remedies on a positive guarantee, that if purchaser is not satisfied with results, we will refund the purchase price. These medicines have been sold on this guarantee for many years and there could be no more conclusive evidence of their great merit. Ask about them and give them a trial. Sold at C. E. The time is not quite so long now until Christmas as it was yesterday. Have you bought all your Christmas goodies? Linda is still making a bid for your trade by offering greatly reduced prices in his big ad in this paper.

The melancholy days are gone, and the festive season will soon be on—the days of Christmas mirth and glee; if you contemplate going on a spree you had better change your mind, engage rooms at Blandwood and take the Keeley treatment.

The furnitureman of the big furniture store, N. J. McDuffie, takes a large space in The Telegram today to tell you of the novelties he has in stock for Christmas. Read it and you will get only a glimpse of what he really has in stock; call on him and he will show you many things he cannot advertise for lack of space. His store is a palace of pretty things.

Dog Ordinance.

The following ordinance was passed at a meeting of the Board of Aldermen of the city of Greensboro on Dec. 20th, 1897.

It is ordained by the board of aldermen of the city of Greensboro, N. C., that it shall be unlawful for the owner of any dog or slut to allow said dog or slut to run at large in the city. That this ordinance shall be in force for forty days from and after the 21st day of December, 1897.

That any person violating said ordinance shall upon conviction be fined $10.00 and it shall be lawful for the duty of the policemen of said city to kill any dog or slut running at large on the streets of said city during the time that this ordinance is in force.

By order of the Board.

JOHN S. MICHAUX, Clerk.
